Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright William Inge's drama, "Bus Stop," is being presented at the Barksdale Theatre at Hanover Tavern.

Directed by Amy Berlin, the production opened on Nov. 27 and runs through Jan. 10, 2010, at 13181 Hanover Courthouse Road in Hanover.

"Bus Stop" is described as a "gentle drama that will warm your heart for the holidays."

In a roadside diner in a snowed-in Kansas town, eight castaways spend a warm winter's night in this American classic, which starred Marilyn Monroe in its legendary film adaptation.
