As spring approaches, the Hanover Tavern has a full schedule of activities planned in the coming months.

The list includes:

○ Wednesday, May 12, 7 to 8 p.m.: Speaker Series with Matthew Krogh from Virginia State University, who will spend the evening discussing his research and love for early Virginian architecture. Learn about the architecture and landscape of historic courthouses, most specifically of Hanover Courthouse. Krogh also will discuss the events related to court days, and what it would have been like to run a tavern, or stay at a tavern similar to Hanover Tavern.

○ Saturday, May 15, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.: Craft and Vendor Fair, a perfect opportunity to pick out a unique gift for the spring season and celebrate Hanover's history on Heritage Day. Appropriate for all ages and free of charge.

○ Saturday, May 15, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.: Hanover Heritage Day

Open House will be celebrated with the Hanover Tavern providing short tours at 10:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m., music and fun. Hanover Courthouse will be open to the public for viewing, and heritage bus tours through Hanover Parks and Recreation will be conducted throughout the morning. Appropriate for all ages and free of charge. Limited
